Dear KZNA Board

The attached letter dated 29 November 2018 from the KZNA Legal Representative, on behalf of the KZNA Board has bearing. ASA trust that this letter carries the approval of the KZNA Board.

With regards to the content of the mentioned letter, it suggests that ASA has no powers over the KZNA Board. This is not the first time that this statement was made by individual members of the KZNA Board and/or their legal representatives.

Please note this implies that the KZNA Board cannot serve on the ASA Council. Until clarity is obtained on the legal standing of the KZNA Board as elected Members of the KZNA Council, the KZNA Board Representatives cannot be entertained on the ASA Council.

With regards to the content of the mentioned letter, ASA will no longer communicate to the KZNA Board in its official capacity but will communicate with individual KZNA Board Members whom have confirmed that they will abide by the ASA suspension of the KZNA Board.

With reference to the attached letter regarding KZNA Staff, ASA will also no longer communicate with the KZNA Office, as the mentioned letter claim that the KZNA Staff has no accountability to ASA.

With immediate effect, ASA will communicate with ASA licensed members through their clubs, until clarity is obtained of the legal standing of the KZNA Board and the Officials that serve them.

Athletics greetings

Richard Stander
